EDITOR GAZETTE:

We were blessed with another good rain Friday.

A girl baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Helweg last week. The GAZETTE extends congratulations.

C. Janke of the firm of Janke & Co., Galveston, was here several days last week.

Ed Boehm and family visiting friends in Platonia Sunday.

Mrs. Higginbotham has been quite ill this week.

The Moulton Institute postoffice will be discontinued on the third.
The Institute will now get its mail here.

Our popular railroad agent, W.
H. Gafford, came in to see us last Wednesday looking very proud and thinking he had been promoted to the office of general superintendent we were just screwing up courage to ask him for a good position when he kindly informed us that he was the happy father of a baby girl.

A Sketch of Ed Boehm, the First Business Man in Moulton.

ED BOEHM was born August 14th, 1854, in Moravia, Austria. At the age of seventeen, having finished school at the Agricultural College at Pressburg, Austria, he went to Russia, where he remained two years. Not being satisfied under the Russian Government he emigrated to United States in the year 1872 and came to Wimberley, Texas.
At that time there was no settlement at Wimberley and but one house there. He rented a piece of land of John Byer, near the head of the Navidad and went to work on his own account. Here he remained one year, after which he moved to Platonia and took a position with F. W. Flato, where he remained another year. At the end of this time he went back to farming again, resuming on the farm for two years. He then returned to Platonia and entered the employ of Harrison and Lane. From there he went to Schulenburg and clerked for Crantz and Kessler, remaining there two years. He then returned a third time to Platonia and clerked for J. M. Harrison, remaining there one year, removing to Praha Postoffice, where he went in to business, remaining there two years. After this he returned to Platonia a fourth time and again entered the employ of J. M. Harrison, remaining one year. In the winter of 1886-7 the Aransas Pass railway was built and Mr. Boehm came to
